

Dear Chris & Lori,

We have worked together in a business capacity for 15 years. I wanted you to know that your entire team, starting with Joe Schwalbe, have become more than business associates but friends.

I deal with 100's of Home Improvement Contractors and we refer to Skyline Sunrooms & Patio Covers as Gold Standard in Customer Service and professionalism. In an environment and economy where consumers have many choices, Skyline Sunrooms & Patio Covers has consistently made the choice in serving the customer with fair and equitable pricing, real knowledge of the product and its benefits, and most of all, delivering a high quality product.

Your team knows their stuff. You won't waste any of your potential customers time because you have the background, talent and craftsmanship to deliver what the consumer wants and done right.

There is no question that you are all remarkable individuals...each passionate about what role they play in serving the customer. I would recommend you and your business to anyone. Have them call me. I will tell them what stellar people and quality business that you run.
